

Lauren Lampley, CPA

Manager, Professional Development

Send an Email

Lauren Lampley is an accomplished accounting professional with nearly 15 years of experience in public accounting at Big Four firms. Throughout her career, she has developed a strong expertise in financial reporting, auditing, and compliance, working with a diverse range of clients across various industries. Her deep understanding of accounting principles, combined with her leadership skills, have allowed her to manage complex projects and mentor junior staff. Passionate about coaching and developing others, she is known for her outgoing personality, professionalism, and dedication to her clients and teams.

Lauren is a licensed CPA in Ohio where she lives with her husband, Matt, and dog, Bodhi. She earned her Master of Accountancy and Bachelor of Business Administration from Kent State University. In her personal time, Lauren is an active member in her local NABA chapter and enjoys traveling, cooking, baking and getting involved in her community.