

LinkedIn

Send an Email

Nate Mohr

Instructor, Audit & CAAS

Nate has been a CPA for over 30 years. He earned his accounting degree at Central Michigan University and his MBA from Northwestern University (Go Cats!). He currently owns and manages a CPA firm in the Grand Rapids, Michigan area. He and his staff perform a variety of business and personal income taxes, coupled with Audits, Reviews, and Compilations.

Nate has been delivering various forms of CPA training since 1993. Prior to that he has a mixture of public and private finance and accounting experience, including Big 4, regional firm, local firm, and a sole proprietor. In industry he had various controller positions and Internal Audit for closely held companies and public corporations.